Frequently Asked Questions

How do I obtain the Parent Tuition Rate?

The parent tuition rate is obtained through approval of the Parent Tuition Rate application that you submit. Once you have been approved, the current parent tuition rate will automatically be applied each time you register unless the student of whom you are the parent discontinues attendance at CMU. Should your student graduate, you are still eligible to receive the Parent Rate. The application can be found at www.cel.cmich.edu/parent-rate/default.html.

Who qualifies for the Parent Tuition Rate?

Any parent of a CMU student who currently attends at least half-time or the parent of a CMU alumnus may qualify for the rate. The parent must be admitted to a CMU off-campus program. The definition of “parent of a student” relates to the actual parents of a child as listed on a birth certificate, or the ability of the parent to claim the student under IRS dependent guidelines. The parent applying for the rate may be asked to prove eligibility by providing a document such as a birth certificate or tax return.

What is the current Parent Tuition Rate?

For current tuition rates go to www.cel.cmich.edu/finances/tuition.html.

Can more than one parent of a CMU student or alumnus get the Parent Tuition Rate?

Yes.

To which programs does this rate apply?

It applies to Off-Campus Programs that do not exceed the standard undergraduate and graduate rates. These programs include:

- Undergraduate programs, except Information Technology and Vehicle Engineering and Design Technology
- Graduate programs, except MS in Nutrition and Dietetics, MBA, SAP Graduate Certificate, Vehicle Design and Manufacturing, and DHA.
